

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE: Buffalo Bayou Rowing Center Hosts Free Event, National Learn to Row Day 2018

HOUSTON, Texas, April 16, 2018 – Buffalo Bayou Rowing Center (BBRC) will be hosting the 17th-annual National Learn to Row Day in collaboration with USRowing and Concept2 on Saturday, June 2, 2018. National Learn to Row day is the first Saturday of June to bring awareness to the sport of Olympic-style rowing. This FREE event for all ages will include a community rowing challenge, prizes, swag, food trucks, boat naming ceremonies, a Sally-Up challenge and much more.

National Learn to Row Day will be on June 2 on the East End Navigation Esplanade, 2800 Navigation Blvd., 77003, from 10:00am-4:00pm. The event is free and open to all ages to support Buffalo Bayou Rowing Center and the youth of Houston.

Buffalo Bayou Rowing Center is the 501(c)(3) non-profit promoting leadership, teamwork, college attendance, and encourages growth to the youth of Houston through competitive rowing.

For questions or sponsorship information about Buffalo Bayou Rowing Center's National Learn to Row Day please contact Michaela Wood, BBRC President (Michaela@BuffaloBayouRC.org, 281-624-5769).

Harmony, balance, and rhythm. They're the three things that stay with you your whole life. Without them, civilization is out of whack. And that's why an oarsman, when he goes out in life, he can fight it. He can handle life. That's what he gets from rowing.

-George Yeoman Pocock

###END###